

The Election and SCOPE

By Ralph Esposito

Because of an unforeseen delay, this issue of Firing Lines may arrive just before or just after the election. SCOPE usually puts out an election issue but to be honest, if you don't know who is pro - gun and who is anti well, you haven't paid much attention.

Out of the large number of Assembly and Senate candidates there are less than a handful of democrats who support the Second Amendment. That is driven by the democrat leadership who has shown a distain for gun ownership of the law abiding. They enforce it by holding the money and committee assignments. You must vote our way or else!

The republicans are on the other hand much more pro - gun. But as the saying goes "eternal vigilance" is the price we must pay to keep our rights.

With the release of Hillary Clinton's "secret" speeches from Wikki Leaks we find that she is a globalist who favors open boarders. That does not mean we keep our Constitution or Bill of Rights in Hillary's perfect world. I bring her up as just an example of what some politicians really believe as they tell us what they think we want to hear.

Another revelation from Wiki Leaks is just how closely the democrats are in bed with the media. It appears from leaked e-mails there has been actual co-ordination between some media and the Clinton campaign. Not only is this disgraceful but shreds any illusion we have media who will report the truth. It is closer to the media in Russia and China that are merely a propaganda arms of the government.

I don't have a crystal ball and the candidates are playing dirty, who will win is not clear. When the last smear is thrown and the smoke lifts only one truth will be clear. We must watch the winners like hawks.

SCOPE has been on a 50 year journey and each year we have become more effective. In the 2015 elections, gun owners actually made important differences in preventing the election of several anti-gun politicians state wide. I know the big race was the governor's but lets give credit to where its due. If we continue to push voting registration and get out to vote for gun-owners' rights we can make a big difference in that race also.

I get a little upset when I hear people say we didn't get out the vote enough.

SCOPE PAC needs donations

Ken Mathison, Treasurer SCOPE PAC

You should all know that SCOPE has a Political Action Committee (PAC) whose sole purpose is to collect money to donate to deserving Second Amendment candidates and incumbents. 2016 is an election year for the state senate and assembly.

I have always said that if all gun owners donated one dollar a month to the SCOPE PAC we would have millions of dollars to work with. So, I'm asking all SCOPE members to donate one dollar per month (more if you can) to the SCOPE PAC. You can do that through an automatic deduction from your credit card, bank account with your debit card, or through a PayPal account if you have one. All you need to do is visit www.scopepac.com, click on the Donate button, and follow the instructions.

Money is the grease of the political machine, if we have significant money we can grease the machine in our favor.

We took a big step and make no mistake SCOPE is on the radar screens of Cuomo on down. It is something to be proud of. No movement for rights is quick and easy. And we are in a fight for our rights.

Recently we won several court decisions for foil requests. Yes we had to go to court to find out what is really happening with the SAFE Act. They lay the foundation for further litigation that will chip away at the SAFE Act. Again this takes determination, time and money. We must stay the course and hit them again and again.

With the possibility of Clinton winning the election the balance of the Supreme Court is at risk of becoming progressive. There is a lot to worry about. The same for NYS; the SAFE Act 2 is waiting in the wings and Cuomo is poised to strike and push it through.

I know it always seems like the fighting never stops. Well, in truth it doesn't. Those who oppose the Constitution and Bill of Rights will always seek to change them. They will try to add more gun control despite any wins our side makes. Like snakes they will seek other ways to sneak in their agenda.

In NYS we are the vanguard, the ones who alert the citizens and engage in the political fight to prevent such bills from becoming law.

You may find that SCOPE and other gun rights organizations are under attack. This means we are making a difference and throwing roadblocks in the plans of the anti-gun politicians. We are making a difference and each year with your dedication we can push for bigger victories.

The second thought would be to add to the list of conditions that make a murder one charge, the crime of a drive by shooting that results in a homicide. What can require more intent than taking a gun in a car to drive around for the purpose of killing someone? If Greg the Gunslinger does this, he will never get out of prison. That could be a real incentive to not do it. It also could give powerful leverage to the DA if he wanted a plea bargain and save the taxpayer the cost of an expensive trial.

Gun control doesn't work. Criminal control would make more sense.

Letter from a citizen

By Henry S. Kramer, Tompkins
County

Like many American citizens who are not members of SCOPE, I do not own a gun nor do I want to own one. So, why am I writing this to SCOPE? Because guns are unlike any other form of property, they are specifically guaranteed by the Second Amendment. Protecting and preserving the entire Constitution itself, even if we do not agree with some of its clauses, is an important value in its own right.

The Constitution is the glue and the cement that holds us together. Americans can be a violent people; we are certainly a litigious one. Like the rules in football, the Constitution defines for us what the rules of the game are and how we must play it. If opponents of gun rights want to change the Constitution, they should follow the amendment procedures. These procedures are difficult and were designed as such to create a high hurdle for those who may want to alter the Constitution. Gun control people are impeded by the Second Amendment, but that does not stop them from trying to pass laws, statutes, and ordinances that undermine our constitutional protections. Presidents Wilson and Obama viewed our Constitution as a set of mere guidelines but they were wrong and organizations such as SCOPE are necessary to protect the Constitution.

While I can support some gun regulation under our Constitution, I think the Second Amendment must be honored. That is one reason why so much is at stake this November in terms of who will appoint Supreme Court justices. The Constitution is what the Supreme Court says it is. They have tightly enforced the First Amendment free speech rights but have effectively nullified the Tenth Amendment, which leaves power to the states and the people. On the Second Amendment, they have set boundaries which seem to be flexible. That is both a good and a bad thing. It allows adjustment to the times but it also allows the Court, if so disposed, to give the Second Amendment lip service while effectively reading the Second Amendment out of the Constitution. Because the Supreme Court is the bulwark of constitutional rights, who will be the people who interpret the Constitution is a critical question.

On one occasion, the amendment process for the Constitution has failed us, prohibition. This social experiment that was forced upon the country by a well organized, vocal, group was so unpopular with the American public that it failed, becoming the only constitutional amendment ever repealed. Strict gun control laws, even if passed, would face a similar fate. They would not be widely accepted particularly outside our big cities and statistics show that tough gun control laws simply do not work.

Consider that you, as a citizen or legal resident of the United States are constitutionally protected to carry your property with you when you cross from New York into another state. It remains yours. That is, all your legal property, except your gun property. Although it is the one kind of property the Constitution protects, it is also the kind of property that the state you enter can regulate or even confiscate. This creates a kind of constitutional singularity for gun property.

So, why should people who don't like guns support and value your Second Amendment rights? Because if we do not, who will be left to speak for us when they come for our First Amendment free speech rights, our rights to a free press, our right to freedom of religion? All are constitutional rights matter and if we fail to defend any of them against unconstitutional incursion we start down the road to the loss of other rights. No rights are absolute rights; some restrictions are not only inevitable but sensible. But the core Second Amendment must be preserved if other rights are to be honored. When you talk with people who don't like guns, this is perhaps what you should tell them. Whether or not they agree with you, they may then support your work in defense of our Constitution itself.

Letter by Bruce LeRoy (Darien Center) pub- lished in the Alden Advertiser 8/21/16

"We the People" are under attack. The Second Amendment gives the citizens the right to keep and bear arms.

The Founding Fathers were well educated and knew the continuing evolution of weapons; the rock, the spear, the bow and arrow, the cross bow, and the musket.

In 1776 the governing powers (British) had the musket, the citizens also had the musket. Now in 2016 with the SAFE Act, the governing powers have assault style weapons, but the citizen only have the rock.

What kind of government would try to disarm us during this age of terrorism?

The politicians that want to disarm us should lead by example, and disarm their heavily armed security teams that surround them - ALL Lives Matter. "We the People!"

Terrorism on our soil

By Tom Reynolds

Barack Obama and the left say that closing our borders is not who we are; but they won't admit that we really are a nation under attack by terrorists. The facts are obvious: the Obama administration is unable to protect America from terrorist attacks; cities with strict gun laws, like Chicago, are unable to protect their citizens from gun crime; countries, like France, which have strict gun laws are unable to protect their citizens; gun-free zones are abysmal failures; the government cannot monitor all potential threats without endangering the Constitution.

The Obama administration is unwilling to confront the terrorism issue and defend the American people. The President even suggested climate change is to blame for terrorism. If so? Why aren't Catholics and Buddhists beheading people? Is ISIS really motivated by changing weather and a lack of jobs?

Insanity has been defined as doing the same thing over and over while expecting a different result. Disarming citizens is a program that has been tried, over and over again, and does not work. It's time to try something different.

Admiral Yamamoto, who planned the attack on Pearl Harbor, said, "You cannot invade the mainland United States. There would be a rifle behind each blade of grass." Terrorism has invaded our homeland. Let's have no more "soft targets" for terrorists. Let's re-arm Americans to protect Americans.

A highly visible gun presence will be a deterrent to crime and terrorism. All Americans start with the Constitutional right to bear arms and only those that fall into narrow categories and have had a judicial hearing should be denied that right.

Passing of a true friend, NYS Assemblyman Bill Nojay

For those in Monroe county the name Bill Nojay was well known. He was the most conservative Republican in the NYS Assembly and an uncompromising supporter of the Second Amendment.

Many SCOPE members knew Bill for a while. I remember meeting him just before his first run for the NYS Assembly. In addition he had a radio talk show on WYSL and was a guest many times on the Second Amendment Radio Show.

He was old school, believed the Constitution meant something more than a document written by some old white guys two hundred years ago. He had family values you would recognize. He was not one of the politicians who would sell out their grandmother for a vote.

SCOPE gives it's deepest condolences to the Nojay family. Bill was a good, decent, man, father, husband and leader. His was a life well-lived and well-loved, a life that will be deeply missed.

Concealed carry laws must be expanded. Handgun licensing should be expedited in the interest of protecting Americans; judges should not have the discretion to delay licensing because of their political beliefs. It should again be a common sight to see rifles mounted in the back window of pickup trucks. It's a program without government cost since private citizens already own guns and will be buying the guns.

This is not a call for unlimited gun ownership but for expanded, common sense gun ownership. Silly and ineffective laws such as the SAFE Act should be repealed. Carrying a gun while intoxicated should have similar penalties to driving while intoxicated. Private property owners must retain their Constitutional right to control their property. Felons, mental patients, etc. would obviously be denied. Use of a gun in a crime should increase the penalty.

People without respect for the lives and rights of others must learn that Americans will not be easy targets. Fourteen people died in San Bernardino even though the police arrived in less than five minutes. Terrorists must learn to expect an immediate response to their actions. Drive by shooters must understand that potential victims can shoot back.

Why should Obama, Cuomo and legislators be protected by guns if citizens are denied that same right?

The 2nd Amendment insures all our Constitutional rights as well as our inalienable rights of life liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Ontario SCOPE

By Gary Zielinski

The Ontario County Chapter of SCOPE -- we are doing our 'job' too well. A question I keep asking myself, is why we don't have the response from our members that they have in the Wayne, Yates, Genesee, and Steuben County chapters?

We have members, but, very few are active. Some people in the county see that there is a problem, but for various reasons, think that throwing $25 a year at SCOPE will solve it. Most gun owners seem to be satisfied with trying to live with whatever Albany throws at them. However, can you spot a trend?

The last 20 years have seen a lot of "stuff" come our way. It's not going to get any better. As soon as 'little duce' thinks he can do it, more onerous regulations will be coming. How would you like getting a prescription for sleeping pills, and having the state police show up to seize all your guns? IT'S HAPPENING NOW!! IT WILL GET WORSE!!

Why don't we have more active members? Is it our leadership? Basically, our leadership are those who show up on a regular basis.

This is a volunteer organization. If there is a lack of volunteers, there will be a lack of capability. So, those who at least recognize that there is a problem, have to accept more responsibility. Become more active, and get more members. Otherwise, prepare for the "knock on the door", and to hand over your guns. Anybody who says anything different is sleep-walking through life.

Schuyler County SCOPE

By Les Wilson

Schuyler County SCOPE has had a busy summer attending local events and meeting candidates running for election.

On August 5-7 Schuyler SCOPE had a booth at the Watkins Glen Italian fest. We were joined by Millport Hunting and Fishing Club and the Odessa Community Conservation Club. Jointly, we were promoting our current fundraising efforts to assist the Schuyler County 4H Youth Shooting Sports Program. The new program has started with the archery discipline and air gun will follow shortly. The Millport Hunting and Fishing Club also joined this effort by providing their grounds as a venue for the 4H program. Some generous members of SCOPE and the Millport Club have attended the 4H training and have become program instructors in various disciplines.

On October 1, Schuyler SCOPE will have a booth at the Montour Falls Harvestfest. Last chance voter registration will be a theme at this event as with all events we attend. The Chapter currently has a raffle ongoing for a 16-gun safe, a reloading kit and a patriotic soft rifle case. The winners of the three prizes will be drawn at our Oct. 13 meeting.

Democratic NY Senate candidate Leslie Danks-Burke addressed our August 11th meeting. She is challenging the incumbent, Senator Tom O'Mara, for the NY 58th Senate District. Danks-Burke stated she was pro 2nd Amendment and acknowledged that she felt the NY SAFE Act has major errors.

The newly installed SCOPE NY President, Tom Reynolds, also attended our August meeting, introduced himself and addressed the Chapter on current SCOPE business.

NY Senator Tom O'Mara attended our September 8th meeting. He gave a briefing on the current NY Senate makeup, proposed legislation and critical Senate races around NY State. He was very concerned that if the Republican conference loses control of the Senate that more onerous gun control bills will be passed.

Our current A rated Assemblyman, Phil Palmesano, is running unopposed in the 132nd Assembly District.

The 2016 SCOPE Banquet

New York 147th District Assemblyman David DiPietro and Brian Krawczyk, of Wethersfield, have a proven track record of educating the public on gun issues and defending the Second Amendment. Earlier this month, the New York Shooters Committee On Political Education (S.C.O.P.E.) honored the two men at its annual banquet in Hamburg.

DiPietro was presented with the Sandra Lee Wirth Memorial Legislator of the Year award for his tireless efforts to protect Second Amendment rights in Albany.

"The first vote I had to make in Albany was in opposition to the S.A.F.E. Act," DiPietro said, "And every year since, I have sponsored a bill to repeal the S.A.F.E. Act."

Last year the assemblyman was honored by S.C.O.P.E. with their Thomas Paine Award for Excellence in Defense of the Second Amendment. DiPietro has put a lot of effort into educating his constituency through numerous town-hall-style meetings throughout the 147th District.

"I don't usually get involved, but since David was so serious about sticking up for our gun rights, I had to help," said Bill Walters, a gun rights activist from Strykersville.

Walters helped organize many of the informational sessions for DiPietro's constituents.

Krawczyk was presented with S.C.O.P.E.'s Thomas Paine Award for Excellence in Defense of the Second Amendment. Revolutionary War re-enactor Tommy Thompson presented the award after quoting Thomas Paine: "These are the times that try men's souls. The summer soldier and the sunshine patriot will, in this crisis, shrink from the service of their country; but he that stands now, deserves the love and thanks of man and woman."

When accepting the award, Krawczyk felt obliged to finish the Paine quote by saying: "The harder the conflict, the more glorious the triumph."

Krawczyk, a member of the Wyoming County S.C.O.P.E. chapter, is very active in gun safety education in Wyoming County. He teaches the Wyoming County mandated Pistol Permit Class, is an NRA Laser Pistol class instructor, and is president of the Wyoming County Wildlife Federation. His efforts have educated many on the mechanics of responsible gun ownership, outdoor sportsmanship, and fair play. After the S.A.F.E. Act was enacted, Krawczyk produced a presentation that was circulated throughout the state. He is also very proactive in educating youth in outdoor sporting skills like hunting, trapping and fishing.

"If it wasn't for volunteers like Brian Krawczyk, there wouldn't be a Wyoming County chapter," said Mark Yount, president of the Wyoming County S.C.O.P.E. chapter.
